

Dear Colleagues,

We are thrilled to announce the launch of the 2024 EUIPO IP Intensive Programme for Students, which will be held online from Monday, 14 October to Friday, 25 October.

Designed to cater to all students, regardless of their background in intellectual property, this Programme offers a well-rounded overview of various IP rights, including trade marks, community designs, geographical indications, copyright, patents, and community plant variety rights. Participants who attend at least 70% of the Programme will receive a certificate of attendance. Attached is a provisional agenda (topics are subject to change).

The Programme will be organized in collaboration with other international organisations, including the EU Commission, the World Intellectual Property Organization, the European Patent Office, and the Community Plant Variety Office.

We are excited to invite you to participate in the Programme as speakers and present a topic from the list:

- Intellectual Property Rights in the EU: An Introduction (14/10)
- Overview of Trade Mark Protection in the EU (14/10)
- Likelihood of Confusion (15/10)
- Overview of the Registered Community Design (16/10)
- Overview of Geographical Indications (17/10)
- Geographical Indications: Legal Framework and Policy (17/10)
- Economic Impact of Geographical Indications (17/10)
- Introduction to Copyright Law in the EU (21/10)
- Originality in the EU (21/10)
- CJEU Jurisprudence on Copyright (22/10)
- Introduction to Patents (23/10)
- Novelty in Patents (23/10)
- Inventive Step in Patents (23/10)
- Overview of Community Plant Varieties (25/10)

If you want to participate as a speaker, please complete this form to register your interest by Friday, 23 August.

We would greatly appreciate your contribution. Please also feel free to forward this information or nominate any member of your university as a speaker.

Thank you so much, and we look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,

On behalf of LAAIS Head of Service Juan SUAREZ
